

6516208002.txt

It is very convenient to the trucking industry having the traffic and weather reports for individual cities. This information is probably available on regular AM or FM radio but, it is not advertised on what stations to tune to and it is given so seldom that you can be in the middle of traffic tie-up before you realize what is or where the problem is.